Why choose AOK?

In Germany, all students need health insurance in order to enrol at a university.

AOK is one of the biggest and most popular health insurance companies in Germany with over 27 million policyholders.

In the case of illness we provide best medical care for our insured. And that for more than 140 years.

And we take extra special care of students – with our comprehensive AOK student service, for example.

You will often find your personal AOK adviser directly on campus or very close by.
